

16th November 2020 (Monday)

10:30 – 11:00

Opening session.

11:00 – 11:50

First session. Financial education in the post Covid-19 era.

12:00 – 12:50

Second session. The utility of the Customer Support Services to improve financial education programmes.

13:00 – 14:00

First round table. Financial education for seniors: elements and methodology

17th November 2020 (Tuesday)

10:00 – 10:50

Third session. Environmental management, corporate social responsibility and financial education.

11:00 – 11:50

Fourth session. Financial education for investors.

12:00 – 12:50

Fifth session. The impact of inflation in consumer's decision-making process: a financial education view.

13:00 – 14:00

Second round table. The vision of the young people: financial education and technology.

18th November (Wednesday)

10:00 – 10:50

Sixth session: Sovereign digital currencies: risks and benefits for the consumers.

11:00 – 11:50

Seventh session: The trace of the exchange of tax information and tax fraud in financial education.

12:00 – 12:50

Eighth session: Financial education and the prevention of bank panics.

13:00 – 13:20

15 years of the Edufinet project (2005-2020)

13:30 – 14:15

Third round table: Financial education as a complement of regulation and financial supervision.

14:05 - 14:30

Presentation of papers.

19th November (Thursday)

09:30 – 10:20

Ninth session:

- Financial education as an instrument to encourage the creation of fintech companies / Financial education and 'Big data'.
- The risks for users of financial services derived from digital transformation.

10:30 – 11:20

Tenth session: Financial knowledge and the predisposition to the sustainable investments: analysis of a practical case.

11:30 – 12:20

Eleventh session: Financial education and circular economy.

12:30 – 13:40

Fourth round table: Financial education and media.

16:30 – 18:00

Fifth round table: financial decision-making by professional athletes (Two parts 16:30-17:15: 17:15-18:00)

20th November (Friday)

10:00 – 10:50

Twelfth session: The role of the families in financial education.

11:00 – 11:30

Thirteenth session: Financial wellness and financial health.

11:35 -11:55

Fourteenth session: Financial education and the planning for the future post Covid-19 of Spanish millennials: results of the IX survey of BBVA pension institute.

12:00 – 12:50

Fifteenth session: Financial education and the planning for the future: an analysis from the financial competencies survey.

13:00 – 13:45

Sixth round table: How to evaluate the effectiveness of a financial education programme.

14:00 – 14:15

Congress closure.